WEST VIRGINIA ELECTION, TAYLOR COUNTY.

GENTLEMEN:-Herewith I have honor of submitting the vote of Clay township, in Taylor county, W. Ya, for President, yesterday, When the war broke out, Taylor connty was intensely loyal, but by degrees she lost her first love, and finally became a her first love, and finally became a Conservative county. Such was the case up to yesterday. In the State election, the "Dimmycrats," as they call themselves, had a majority of twenty-nine (29) votes in Clay township; but yesterday no nose-pulling was done. Voters voted their sentiments, and the Republicans not only gained the twenty-nine, but actually gave President Grant forty-three (43) majority, making a change of seventytwo (72) votes. This is just about the strict party vote when no one has to be pulled by the nose, or in other words, when every man is allowed the freedom of voting his own sentiments.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

"LIEUTENANT."

PLEASANTS.

The whole number of votes in a full Electoral College would be 327. Mississippi, Texas and Virginia excluded, there are 294, of which 148 are necessary for a choice. Giving all the new doubt for sonnes. Giving all the now doubt-ful States (25 votes) to Seymour, Grant will still have 192, a majority over Sey-mour of 90 votes, and 25 more than would be necessary for a choice if all the States voted. an's Election to be Contested. NEW YORK, November 4.

There is great indignation among Republicans at the result of the election in this State, and the Tammany leaders are freely denounced. The authorities claim to have avidence that fifteen thousand illegal voices were cast, and Hoffman's election will be contested or canceled. Last night for the first time since the Police Commissioners had the appointment of Inspectors and Ganvassers of election, the men filling these positions refused to obey instructions to make a prompt canvass of the votes, and is said their action was diofated by the Tammany leaders, and agreed upon early in the day. Herefore the canvassers have promptly counted the roles as soon as the polis were closed, and made their returns according to law, without ever giving rise to any suspicion that the ballots had been tampered with. Last night the reverse was the case, and many canvassers acted in such a manner that their movements can only be accounted for on the supposition that they intended to tamper with the ballots. Usually the vote for the first name on the lights its known at police headquarters by nine o'clock in the evening, but owing to the perversences of some of the canvassers last night the vote for Grant and Griswoold was not known until saveral bours later.

The Police Commissioners remained at headquarters until four o'clock this morning making changes of disobedient canvassers. Judge Bosworth was milled from his house at 12 o'clock to ent canvassers. Judge Bosworth called from his house at 12 o'clock sioner Brennan, who is a memi lay aside all doubtful ballots and proceed with the canvass as fast as possible. No altention was paid to the order, and it became necessary to remove some of the men. The delays were evidently concocted and made for some unexplained reason in the interest of the Democratic party.

The Democratic canvasser in the Third District of the Eighteenth Ward insisted that the police and all other persons should leave the room whills the vote was counted. This would not only have been a violation of his instructions, but also a violation of law. In the Tenth District of the Fifteenth Ward, a Democratic canvasser disputed five hours over one vote, when he with the canvass.

A canvasser in the Fourth Ward insisted on reading the thirty-three names on each ticket before taking up the next ballot. He wasted five hours in this ballot. He wasted five hours in this way.

In the Thirteenth Precinct the police report that when the Assembly ballots were turned out of the box upon the table for counting, in the Fourth District of the Thirteenth Ward, somebody turned off the gas, leaving the room in darkness. Before light could be produced many of the tickets were removed and others mixed with those lying on the table. The canvassers refused to count the ballots, and sent them to the Thirteenth Precinct Station House. The police also allege that the same The police also allege that the same persons attempted similar frauds in the Second and Eighth Districts of the ame Ward, but were prevented by the which is, should be allowed to pour into the street some hundred boys from six to sixteen years of age, who make the air hideous with their noise. Not only that, but they trespass upon private property to the very great annoyance or private cilizens. There are some gentlemen parents in that part of the city, who if they only knew the bad behavior of their sous, I am satsified would endeavor to correct the evil complained of. But what I would inquire into is this: whether protection to person and property is guaranteed to citizens. into is this: whether protection to person and property is guaranteed to entizens for payment of Taxes or not; if not, it is hard to discover why Taxes should be leyied and collected at alt, if citizens cannot have peace and quietness as well as safety.

What is the use of paying taxes? Why can not the dity authorities compail those schools to farnish private grounds for the use of their scholars and not allow them upon the streets?

ior school, purposes, yet you can see a sign stuck up on another building not calculated for a college or school house, "Lindsley Institute." This is, I am satisfied, not what Noah Lindsley intended should be the use which is made of the legacy left by him to the city of Wheeling for educational purposes. And further, the Public Schools of the city allow their scholars to occapy the atreets for play grounds to the very great annoyance of our citizens as well as danger. The custom of boys playing ball and throwing and knocking stones, breaking windows, and yelling like fleuds, is perfectly unendurable. The same remarks will apply to the Schools, on Fifth street. The noise, and the throwing of stones with a stick or paddle is unsafe for persons passing by on the side walks, to say nothing of the windows which they break. This nulsance should be abated grounds for their scholars to play on and not in the street to the great annoyance of passers by on the street as well as sidewalts. A Tax Payer.

The Republican suspicion that such circular was issued for the purpose of knowing how large a Democratic vote must be cast in the oity, is sustained by the conduct of the Democratic canyassers delaying the counting.

The investigation of the conduct of O'Brien's Deputy Sheriff, shows that in several districts they voted and assisted repeaters to vote. In one district of the Seyenth Ward they arrested the Inspector on a pretended warrant from Judge Williams, and white they had him in custody the repeaters cast about two-hundred vote.

NEW YORK November 5.

Captain General Lersundi had an interview with De Larentia, the American Consul at Havana, a few days ago in regard to affairs connected with the insurrectionary movements in Cubs. The Consul stated that some American citizens might be implicated in the movement, as they generally in hoor Republican institutions, and if they were captured and should be tried and dealt with in a manner that should create a suspicion of foul dealing, the United States Government might be unable to prevent fillbustering expeditions against the island.

The Captain General said all prisoners would be allowed to consult with the Consul, and would be dealt with according to the civil law in the case. The Consul subsequently determined to ask for a United States mann-of-war in Havana, but on preparing a telegram for the purpose, the Captain General requested him not to send it, as it would enrage the discontented. The Consul insisted and the Captain General refused to allow the telegram to be transmitted over the cable.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 4, '68, Washineron, D. C., Nov. 4, '68, The Democrats are greatly disgusted at the completeness of our victory, and are trying to console themselves with the idea that Grant will follow in the footsteps of Tyler and Johnson. At the room where they received the returns its night speeches were made by nine persons, five of whom expressed the belief that he would turn out to be a good Democrat. One thought he would prove a Cromwell, and another said he would probably be a Great belief that he would probably be a Great Colonel Cavannugh, Delegate in Congress from Montana, believed there would never be another election in this country.

country.

The Nar this evening uses the fol-lowing language on the subject: "We do not doubt that President Grant's conservative measures. But that it will mest the views and win the praise of all-true triends of the country, we have just as little doubt. In fact the prospect is that he will prove to be a good enough Democrat for the enlightened and patriotic Democrats, and at the same time a good enough Republican for all liberal and large minded Republicans."

The Intelligencer reminds the Democratic party, "I told you so," and in conclusion takes a whack at Belmont and Tammany, in the following aquare terms: "The result which we chronicle to-day of the vote of New York fally proves that our worst apprehensions have been realized. The swidence of treachery is plain. It will be seen that Hoffman leads Seymour by many votes, and the caution which we gave a law days ago has been unneeded. Tammany, with all its corruptions, has triumphed at the expense of all party fealty, and will now revel in undisturbed possession of the spoils wrong from the overtaxed people of the EmpireState. With such an unequivocal profession of duplicity and treachery as this result exhibits, we call upon the Democrats and Conservatives of the country to soom in the future all affaliation with these spoils stors."
